Woman drowns in Holiday Lake

The body of a 56-year-old Lynchburg Training School patient was found in Holiday Lake early Tuesday morning, according to the Appomattox County Sheriff's Department.

Gwendolyn Ford, 56, a resident of the Lynchburg Training School in Madison Heights, apparently drowned early Tuesday after leaving her room at the Holiday Lake 4-H Center and walking down to the waterside.

The Sheriff's Department spokesman said the woman apparently fell into the lake and was unable to get out of the water. She was reported missing by a LTC counsellor around 6:30 a.m., according rto the Sheriff's Department.

Ms. Ford was in a group of LTS patients vacationing at the Holiday Lake 4-H Center, according to the Sheriff's Department.

Retreads not typical cycle gang

By FRANCES H. PAULETTE

On a Friday morning not so long ago in Gettysburg, Pa., the regular routine of the picturesque town was broken by the sound of motorcycles approaching. As the bikers cruised the village, all 400 of them, the townspeople stopped and stared. More than a few of the residents felt apprehensive as four of the cyclists pulled out from the group and stopped in front of Faber's Diner in the town square.

There was no doubt the Gettysburg folks were nervous but they just stood their ground and watched.

Imagine their amazement when the lead rider reached up and pulled off his helmet only to reveal a shock of snowy white hair!

"Hi there, Sonny," he said to a youngster standing nearby. "How's the food in this place?"

A motorcycle gang? Of course.....but a group entirely different from any group you may have known before! The incident really did happen in Gettysburg and it could happen here in Appomattox.

The Retreads, a motorcycle club for mature citizens, is the fastest growing cycle club in America, and listed among their members are Christine and James Whitehead who live on highway 460 just east of Appomattox. The Whiteheads have been members of the group since 1975.

Actually the name is Retreads XL Plus; one prerequisite to becoming a member is that one must be 40 years or older.

On occasion the group is called "Recycled Teenagers". They really don't care what you call them as long as it isn't abusive.

Talk to members of the Retreads and you will find slight socioeconomic differences. Almost all of the group is gainfully employed or successfully retired from gainful employment. They lack criminal records and are not inclined to be 'law-breakers' in any sense of the word.

Check the list of members and you will find business people, doctors, lawyers, and one member of the Retread group is a Bethlehem Steel Executive. Most of the members are grandparents.

J. B., as Whitehead is often called, retired from the Norfolk and Western Railway six years ago. His wife, Christine, retired from the Lynchburg Training School four years ago.

"I've never owned anything but a Harley-Davidson," said Whitehead, who began riding a motorcycle at age 15 when he owned his first Harley-Davidson Model 25.

The Whiteheads joined the Virginia Retreads in 1975. There are more than 200 members in this group which is in the Southern Regional Group. Randolph and Betty Brooke of Lynchburg are Virginia state representatives.

Christine began riding 'seriously', as she expressed it, in 1975 when J. B. bought a 1973 model Purple and White Harley-Davidson.

The Whiteheads are the parents of two sons, Arnold B. and James C. (Boopie); they have nine grandchildren.

Both sons were happy when their dad decided to join the Retreads and began encouraging their mother to ride with them.

"You'll ride with Dad, won't you Mom?" questioned Arnold as they were looking over the bike in the back yard. Christine didn't answer right away.

Walking slowly around and around the motorcycle, she finally said, "I'll tell you, I just don't know whether a lady should ride one of these things or not, but I guess I can give it a try!"

With that statement, she crawled on behind her husband and she's been riding ever since.....and loves it! Incidentally, she leaves all the driving to J. B.

The Whiteheads, who have been married for 46 years in September, don't let the cold, rough weather stand in their way of getting on the road on their bike. They have snowmobile suits for protection.

Helmets are required by law as part of their attire for bike travel. Although most of the members do wear boots it is not a requirement. Rainclothes are a necessary part of the bikers wardrobe.

Town taxes due

Town personal and property taxes are due by Sept. 30, according to Appomattox Town Manager Bill Britton.

The Town Office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays during the month of September, and will be open from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 26, so that citizens may pay their taxes, according to Britton.

Local Boy Scouts excel

By FRANCES H. PAULETTE

"On my honor, I'll do my best to do my duty to God and country, to obey scout law, to help other people at all times, to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight...."

With these words scouts in Appomattox have been opening their meetings for the past 31 years.

Appomattox boys take scouting seriously and this summer at camp 12 boys qualified for 27 awards. They are as follows: Roy Brennen, mile swim, canoeing, and basketry; Mike Hansen, woodcarving and orienteering; Roger Stefnkamp orienteering, swimming, rowing, and pioneering; Sean Isom, Indian lore, basketry and leatherwork; James Isom, woodcarving and leatherwork; Joe Reynolds, sports; Louis Robinson, basketry and mammals; Ronald Reed, Indian lore, and leatherwork; Chris Robinson, sports; Dennis Reynolds, sports; David Totty, lifesaving, rifle and shotgun, mile swim, athletics and leatherwork.

Ben Martin and David Totty worked on staff while their troop was at camp and remained for the duration of the camp as staff assistants.

The Lions Club is the sponsoring organization for Boy Scouts in Appomattox. They have been sponsors since 1943. A charter is signed each year attesting to the fact that religious principles and good moral character will exist in scout leadership. Re-chartering is done here in Appomattox each April.

The Lions Club is supportive financially to the scouts and a representative from the club works between the organization and the scouts.

Locally, the primary source of money is income from sale of drinks at the Appomattox Historic Railroad Festival each year.

It costs $15.00 per member to operate a troop. Initially each scout will pay $6.00 and all else is paid through funds raised.

Appomattox scouts belong to Blue Ridge Mountain Council. The highlight of scouting for the Appomattox Troop is the time spent at the camp at Blue Ridge.

The camp, owned by Blue Ridge Mountain Council, is the largest in the United States, covering 16,000 acres; there are two camps on the reservation.

The Appomattox Boy Scout Troop was one of the first troops in the United States to earn the Thomas C. Clark award for contributions to the betterment of National Parks. Appomattox scouts did volunteer work at the Appomattox Court House National Historic Park.

Scouting is more than learning swimming, canoeing, woodworking, pioneering.....it is a way of life. Ask almost any scout what hobby he enjoys most and he'll answer, "scouting." Scouting provides instruction in cooking, first aid, knowledge of the out-of-doors and so many other things. But while the boys are enjoying a wide variety of activities, they are learning more important things, the meaning of honesty, high moral standards, fair-play and most of all, the ability to get along well with each other.

Appomattox scouts will help at Christmas time with the delivery of food and clothing to the needy. They are being taught to care and they live what they learn.

As a final fling for the summer, Appomattox Boy Scouts enjoyed a camping trip with supper, Court of Honor, and Campfire for Scouting families and guests on August 21,22 and 23.

It is said that approximately one out of a hundred boys in scouting ever make the rank Eagle Scout. Appomattox is proud to boast that in the 31 years scouting has been a part of this community, at least 10 boys have attained the rank of Eagle Scout.

Scoutmaster for Appomattox Scouts is Allen Harvill and assistant scoutmaster is Ron Steinkamp. Al Carmody serves as organization representative.

Appomattox Boy Scouts meet each Wednesday evening at 7:00, year round at St. Anne's Episcopal Church.

B.P. check planned

A blood pressure check will be offered at the Pamplin Fire Department on Saturday, Sept. 5 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The check is being sponsored by the Pamplin VFW Post 10487.

Although there will be no charge for the blood pressure check, donations will be accepted.

Softball benefit set

There will be a special softball game for the benefit of Harold Martin at the Appomattox Town Ball Park this Saturday, Aug. 29, starting at 6 p.m.

Harold would like for all those who played on his team and anyone who participated in the leagues with him to participate.

Groundbreaking set

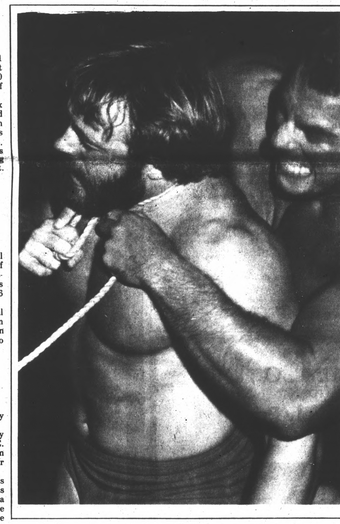
Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Our Lady of Peace Roman Catholic Church will be held this Saturday evening at 7:15 p.m., according to a church spokesman.

The ceremony will be held at the future location of the church, at the intersection of Routes 627 and 621, south of the National Historical Park.

Bishop Walter L. Sullivan of Richmond will conduct the Mass service, assisted by Father Albert F. Pereira.

Also on hand at the ceremony will be Bill Jamerson of J.E. Jamerson and Sons, the firm awarded the contract for building the church.

The Saturday evening mass will fulfill the Sunday Mass obligation, according to a church spokesman, and there will be no Sunday service at the old Oakville School.



Take that!

For Appomattox County Schools

Lunch program defined

Appomattox County Public Schools today announced its policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and Federal criminal statues.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals they must complete an application.

Under the provisions of the policy each school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he wishes to make a fognal appeal, he may make a request orally or in writing to Richard B. Carter, Appomattox County School Board, P. O. Box 548, Appomattox, Va. 24522. Telephone Number: 352-8253 for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if a family size changes, the family must contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals if the family income falls at or below the levels shown on the income sales.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Each school and the office of the Division Superintendent has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Father Darkleaf

By CALVIN ROBINSON

Being an optimist by nature, I dislike to start off the day in a shadow of gloom. And tain't always easy. Some morning headlines in the papers and TV feature bad news. Car wrecks and details of death on the 'highways. Fires. Murders. Robbery. Inflation. Unemployment. It is like putting onions in your cornflakes or used crankcase oil in your coffee. Not that I do not have sympathy for those in distress. It is just that I prefer to get a good start. Shave with my chin up, not stuffed in my collar. So, find some good news and soon you will have others helping you look. It was bad when I let in a covey of gnats at the front door this morning. But I opened the back door, and out they went. That was good and made me realize that maybe there are not as many gnats this summer as last. I saw a friend taking an early morning bicycle ride and that was good. Others jog or have a daily walking quota. That is good. So, not only is Appomattox A Growing Town, it has good news for you, if you but look for it. I like it that way.

But you must learn to take whatever comes. I was watching one of the early season football games on TV. Suddenly a runner broke loose and made a sensational dash for the goal line, scoring. He was hoisted to the shoulders of his mates in a frenzy of delight. Then, this from the announcer: "Hold everything, there is a flag on the play!"

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fraley and daughter, Marie were in Washington recently and had a memorable experience. They had the opportunity to tour the White House, get a glimpse of the President and Mrs. Reagan leaving for their vacation, and then a meal with their friend, Ms. Judy Peachee, a special assistant on the staff of Interdepartmental Government Affairs. I got a sourvenir, too, a book of paper matches with the White House on one side and a picture of President Ronald Wilson Reagan on the other side. Thanks.

Also thanks for some interesting newspapers. Two from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, Canada, from Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd St. John and Lloyd Jr., of Spout Spring. They are home after a delightful vacation. The Moncton TIMES and The Guardian, of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

And thanks to Mrs. Arthur Schroeder, of Texas City, Texas for stopping by to bring me some papers from Delaware. Mrs. Schroeder was originally from Appomattox, Mr. Schroeder from Delaware. Copy of The Sussex Countian, Georgetown, Del., and Beackweek and The Morning News, of Wilmington, Del. And most interesting, too, a copy of The Whale, Lewes, Del. Odd name for a paper, but derived from the area near Rehoboth Beach being a whaling center in early colonial days. Liked a front page column, called "What's Up." Ah yes, and the famous Ferko String Band plays at Rehoboth Beach. This band, of Philadelphia, is well known in Virginia, having performed in Virginia's Tobacco Festival for some thirty years.

Appomattox will be featured on TV Cable Television 6 at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Thanks for reading and seeya around.
